

NORTHEAST NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS
BOARD MEETING
FEBRUARY 2, 2019

The meeting was called to order at 9:05 a.m. by Tania Hunt, Chair, at Financial Plus Credit Union on February 2, 2019. In attendance were: Tania Hunt, Valerie Madison, Kevin Marken, Paul Sadler, and Marge Ramsey.

Bob Mahaffey will be our speaker for Monday's meeting. He will be talking about the one cent sales tax that will be voted on March 5th.

Valerie will obtain a speaker from the Commission on the status of women for our March speaker.

Speakers for the months of April, May and June were discussed but nothing was decided at this time.

Next subject was the grant application for 2019. The Board decided that we would put the following in for the new grant:

Resource Fair	$1,500.00
Fuel Up First	500.00
Web Maintenance	900.00
Apparel with Logo	500.00
Supplies	150.00
Community Outreach	450.00

For a total of $4,000.00

Speakers for the months of April, May and June were discussed but nothing was decided at this time. Talk was about inviting Dwana Bradly from the School board, or Ruth Ann Gaines or Callie from Park and Rec about the 125th anniversaries

We talked about the February 7th Plan and Zoning Commission public meeting for the U Haul (old Kmart). Some individuals are planning to attend but no one will speak for NEN&F.

The Metro Waste Authority's waste bag system was talked about but will be discussed further at our Monday meeting

Meeting was adjourned at 10:16.

Respectfully submitted,

Marge Ramsey
Secretary/Treasurer
